Jonah 4 NIV

1 But to Jonah this seemed very wrong,
and he became angry.

² He prayed to the Lord, “Isn’t this what I said, Lord, when I was still at home? That is what I tried to forestall by fleeing to Tarshish. I knew that you are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and abounding in love, a God who relents from sending calamity.

³ Now, Lord, take away my life, for it is better for me to die than to live.”

⁴ But the Lord replied, “Is it right for you to be angry?”

When God Goes Too Far

⁵Jonah had gone out and sat down at a place east of the city. There he made himself a shelter, sat in its shade and waited to see what would happen to the city.

⁶Then the Lord God provided a leafy plant and made it grow up over Jonah to give shade for his head to ease his discomfort, and Jonah was very happy about the plant.

⁷ But at dawn the next day God provided a worm, which chewed the plant so that it withered.

⁸When the sun rose, God provided a scorching east wind, and the sun blazed on Jonah's head so that he grew faint. He wanted to die, and said, "It would be better for me to die than to live."

⁹ But God said to Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry about the plant?”
“It is,” he said. “And I’m so angry I wish I were dead.”

¹⁰ But the Lord said, “You have been concerned about this plant, though you did not tend it or make it grow. It sprang up overnight and died overnight.

¹¹ And should I not have concern for the great city of Nineveh, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand people who cannot tell their right hand from their left—and also many animals?”

Micah 7:18

¹⁸ Who is a God like you,
who pardons sin and forgives the transgression
of the remnant of his inheritance?
You do not stay angry forever
but delight to show mercy.

When God Goes Too Far

So What? (Observation)

God is patient with Jonah.

God is patient with our enemies.

God is patient with us.

So What? (Observation)

The Kingdom of God is a diverse kingdom.

So What? (Observation)

God's mercy is greater than our sense of justice.

Now What? (Application)

If God sent Jonah to you, what would Jonah's message be?

How would you respond?

Now What? (Application)

What “plants” do you love more than people?

Now What? (Application)

Does God's scandalous mercy go too far?

Scandalous Mercy

When God Goes Too Far

God's love for the whole creation is a better context for understanding our own salvation.
